Open burning now limited

With the advent of summer weather in Carmel Valley, the Fire Department has limited open burning to the hours between 7 a.m. and noon, with a three day limit on permits.

The First Aid Crew reminds everyone to be careful when using equipment such as power mowers and electric hedge clippers. When repairing or adjusting such equipment, always be sure the motor is OFF to avoid accidental injury.

THE NEW HOLIDAY Inn's 165 rooms will be open for occupancy tomorrow, according to Dan Ponder, manager. The restaurant is already in operation from 7 a.m. to 11 p.m. and the cocktail lounge is expected to be open tomorrow, according to Ponder. Sauna baths, heated swimming pool, direct dial phones, free coffee, radio and TV are features of the new Inn.

Valley Pool to open Memorial Day

Carmel Valley Community Pool will be open on Memorial Day, May 30, and remain open on weekends until the end of school. Hours will be from 1 to 4:30 according to Ken White, manager of the pool. At the close of school, it will be open every day.

Before opening day there will be a workday on Saturday to cut weeds and grass around the pool area and generally get the place in shape. All young people in the Valley are urged to come help out, with a swimming party following for those who work two hours or more.

A new pre-school swimming program will be inaugurated this year, with five instructors participating. The only requirement is that the child be able to stand in the shallow end. Registration for these classes will begin the day after school is out (June 17).

In addition, the regular schedule of swimming and diving lessons and life saving classes will be held. Times will be announced later, according to White.

Last year's popular staff will be back as life guards and instructors.

Valley items on PlanCom agenda

Items on today's Planning Commission agenda include final zoning action of the shopping center at the mouth of the Valley, near the newly completed Holiday Inn.

Application of the Holiday Inn for a use permit for its bar is also on the schedule. Carmel Chatmar, Inc., developers of the Inn, did not realize that a separate permit for the accessory cocktail lounge use was necessary, since the design approval had been made on plans including a bar.

Subdivision maps up for approval include the Jack Rauber property, Los Tulares, with 2 1/2 acre minimums, Hidden Hills extension, Vista Hermosa including nine lots just above the Farm Center off a private road, and High Meadows Tract in Hatton Canyon.

In other Planning Commission business, California American Water Company is requesting two water storage tanks in Carmel Valley, one at Carmel Views and the other in Rancho Tierra Grande.

Listen to Carmel Valley news every Thursday morning over radio station KIDD, with Outlook editor Ginnie Drew reporting.

A REALTOR and a BROKER ARE THE SAME THING, AREN'T THEY?

Well, almost. Funk and Wagnall Standard Family Dictionary defines a broker as, "One who buys and sells for another on commission or who arranges for the negotiation of various types; especially a stockbroker." A Realtor is defined as "A realty broker who is affiliated in membership with the National Association of Real Estate Boards, which has for one of its objects, the protection of the public against dishonest practices, as of brokers; a protected trade name." Their policies are therefore basically the same; To assist you in buying and selling real estate, honestly, swiftly and efficiently.

When you list your real estate with a broker or a Realtor, request that your transaction be placed with the oldest and largest, independent home-owned title company in Monterey County.

UNDER THE OAKS & AMONG THE CACTI

By Mildred Hattan

Mrs. Thomas (Marjorie) McKiernon is counting on breaking the 100-donor barrier tomorrow when the Red Cross Blood Bank opens its doors between 3 and 6 at the Fire Station.

A tremendous amount of credit for the success of each bank is due the ladies of the telephone committee. Inspired by Marjorie's goal, current volunteers include the following: Mmes. Luther Washington, Don Brill, Erasimo Belleci, John Woods, John Lake, G.H. Katzman, Art Harber, George Clifford, Kirk Gayman, Steven Shaffer, John Power, Leo Berta, Vera Stokes, A.L. Friedenthal, Clyde Lucas, Hiram Bishop, Lydia Laufer, A.E. Dickinson, Miss Helen Thompson, and Cmdr. (ret.) Almira Davis.

The Roy Kaminske family of West Carmel Valley Road celebrated three recent family birthdays with a trip to San Francisco.

The children enjoyed the aquarium, the zoo, Wax Museum, Fisherman's Wharf, the Maritime Park, and China Town.

The inevitable happened. After a long briefing on the culinary pleasures of a Chinese restaurant, somebody ordered "spaghetti and a hamburger!" Their favorite places of the trip were the talking dolphins and the "Balclutha," a historic ship now a museum of fascinating sailing artifacts.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Carmel Valley Volunteer Fire Department met Thursday evening at the home of their new president, Mrs. Erasimo Belleci on Paso Hondo. Plans for the coming year were discussed with the new slate of officers. The business meeting was followed by dessert and coffee.

You've heard of a 'tiger in your tank'—well would you believe 'a tiger on your mailbox?' The cleverly decorated box (black with yellow stripes and cunning kitten faces) now marks the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lambert and their daughters, Becky and Wendy. Former residents of Lower Circle, the Lamberts purchased the former home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Cox at 258 Robles del Rio. Their move coincided with the arrival of a litter of kittens presented by their pet, "Fluffy," so the box was decorated in a theme in her honor. A cute traffic stopper!

"Ready-Bobby-Sox" is certainly a fine example of the superior training a horse receives when handled by the Ralph Carters at Gold Oak Stables on West Carmel Valley Road. Ralph recently purchased the quarter-horse filly for Mrs. William (Duncan) Lewis.

Following a brief intensive training period, the horse was entered at Paso Robles where she took first place among the 15 head of registered quarter-horses which were judged. Last week Bobby Sox placed second among 16 entrants at another show. This Saturday she travels to Stockton where she is certain to add to the five points collected toward the 12 required for a champion.

"Happiness is a luncheon at the La Rancheria home of Mrs. Irving Ollason." So agreed the guests invited last Monday to honor Mrs. Elbert Wade, Mrs. Emil Hansen, and Mrs. Ross Williams. (Unfortunately, Mrs. Williams was unable to attend due to illness.)

Louella had used a shocking pink and orange color scheme. Ribbons ran from her white tiered centerpiece filled with geraniums, camellias, and primroses to each place.

Place cards were bedecked with angels and an inscription reading "Happiness is" with an appropriate description of the talents and hobbies of each guest.

Attending were Mmes. Jenny Clark, George Greer, Anders Larsen, Lin Dickie, John Power, Amy Mylar and John Hughes.

Mrs. Karl Kunz was hostess at her Berwick Drive home for the May benefit bridge and canasta party sponsored by the Carmel Valley Community Chapel Guild.

Her co-hostess, Mrs. G.H. Katzman, assisted serving refreshments to the 24 attending.

High in bridge was awarded to Mrs. Richard Warmington, second in bridge to Mrs. Gordon Brown. The canasta prize was won by Mrs. Vera Stokes.

Sincere congratulations to Robert Zampatti of Live Oak Lane who received word last week that he had been promoted to Lt. Cmdr. of the 12th Naval District Naval Reserve Training Center in Monterey.

A member of the Reserve Supply Corps, Lt. Cmdr. Zampatti was one of the only nine chosen and the only one from Monterey.

His impressive Naval career began with a commission in 1956 and included duty with MAAG as a Naval Exchange Officer in 1957 in Saigon, Vietnam.

At the time of his discharge he was Material Control Officer at Moffet Field. He joined the Reserve three years ago in San Mateo.

Mrs. Hixie Boon has returned to her home at Sycamore Farm following an extended visit in Alabama.

The Valley Bridge Club met Tuesday evening at the Community Center for an evening of duplicate bridge.

The award for first place went to Mrs. A.S. Bradley and Mrs. George Corrigan. Mrs. Irene Baldwin and Mrs. Mary Drobek placed second, and Mike Antonich and his partner, Maurice Stoney, were third.

Mrs. Irene Baldwin planned a dinner party Sunday evening at Lou's Casa Carmela, celebrating the birthday of Mrs. Edgar Zook. Honoring Mrs. Zook were Miss Marjorie Ipsen, Mrs. Ruth Holmes, and Mr. and Mrs. D.L. Taylor.

What Is Linen Supply?

What is the essence of linen supply? The answer seems so simple that the question sounds silly. Of course, linen supply is the rental of hygienically-clean textiles for many uses. It provides economy, good employee morale, consumer satisfaction, convenience. It permits capital investment to be made more profitably and allows people to concentrate on their major business functions. It takes care of the needs of people away from home.

Dynamic Mrs. von Meier, PlanCom head, fights to preserve Carmel

Re-zoning Carmel's non-conforming guest houses in residential areas would only compound the problem. That's the firm opinion of Mrs. Julian von Meier, chairman of the Carmel Planning Commission.

Instead of re-zoning, she favors issuing use permits for the guest houses. "If they are re-zoned, offstreet parking and signs would probably follow," Mrs. von Meier explained.

She feels that the best way to control changes or possible developments of the guest houses would be with use permits.

"It's a constant battle to maintain the beauty of Carmel," she pointed out. But if a thankless job, Mrs. von Meier's reward is the satisfaction she gets for her efforts.

Carmel's beauty is known all over the world, and several years ago she was asked in Rome how it has been achieved. "We have withstood the pressures and we—those of us involved in the city government and most residents as well—are dedicated to keeping it a pleasant place to live," she answered.

The city's regulations on such things as advertising signs and offstreet landscaping have earned a reputation as model ordinances and are often requested by other towns in the country, according to Mrs. von Meier.

Carmel has been fortunate, she explained, in having people who chose it of their own free will because they appreciated its beauty and are willing to express themselves to maintain it this way.

PLANNING PAYS OFF

"We have found that when people are shown that it is economically to their advantage to conform to our zoning, they nearly always come around to our way of thinking," she said. "There are very few cases when people are adamant and we have to lower the boom."

Design control is mostly a matter of persuasion, she added. The high values of property in Carmel prove the point.

She said that she expects Carmel's capable new planning director, John J. Riling, Jr. will help the planning commission hurdle its big problems.

Mrs. von Meier has served on the seven-member planning commission for eight years and has been chairman the last four years. She recalled that she had just left the Carmel School Board after eight years of service on it when then Mayor John Chitwood asked her to be a planning commissioner.

Her interest in planning began seriously during her year as president of the Monterey Peninsula League of Women Voters in 1956 when the organization made a study of the importance of an area plan. She was also a member of the Citizens Planning Council, an organization put together by former Sen. Fred Farr. Largely as a result of efforts of these groups, the Area Planning Commission was formed in 1957 and the six cities joined planning efforts in about 1960.

A DO-ER

Mrs. von Meier is a "do-er," and the list of other organizations is impressive in which she has worked. A charter member of the Monterey Symphony Association since 1947, she has been on the board and treasurer for the last three years of the Monterey Peninsula Museum of Art Association.

Mrs. von Meier is a board member of the Peninsula Community Church whose new building has just been completed in Carmel Valley and she sings in its choir.

She was secretary for three years of the Carmel Recreation Commission, which launched the Carmel Youth Center. But she gives her daughter Kathi credit for sparking the idea for the Youth Center in 1948 when she was at Carmel High.

Kathi, who went on through MPC and UC at Berkeley, is now Mrs. Carol McKenney and lives with her husband and their four children in Castro Valley in the East Bay area.

Mrs. von Meier's youngest daughter, Karen, who is now Mrs. John Christian, lives in San Francisco with her husband and their four children.

Her son Kurt is a professor of art history at UCLA. He went through MPC and UC at Berkeley and earned his PhD from Princeton. He has one child.

Kurt's artistic interest and talent come naturally, for his mother studied art at the Dreusik School of Applied Arts in Berkeley where she was born and raised. Her father was a native son of California and her mother came close to being a native daughter, moving here with her parents when she was but a year old.

TO CARMEL IN '45

Before her marriage to Julian von Meier, owner of a Berkeley restaurant, she was a design consultant and commercial artist and was active in the Oakland Art Association. Selling his restaurant in Berkeley in 1945, they moved to Carmel with the intention of purchasing another restaurant. But he died about a year after they purchased a typically charming Carmel house.

Mrs. von Meier for 16 years has been a key worker for the Carmel Red Cross. Just now she is filling in for Mrs. Dorothy James, executive secretary, who is away on a month's vacation. She does the secretarial work for the few months of the annual fund drive.

But most of the time she is a hard-working volunteer without pay, doing such chores as handling the rest of the volunteer staff. Blood bank projects have to be staffed and there's the 24-hour-a-day liaison service for military personnel and their families.

"I like to paint in water color when there's time and to do crewel embroidery," she added. And as if that isn't enough, she just finished personally painting her house for the third time.

"I love gardening and do all my own. And I suppose I'm an omnivorous reader—often a book a night."

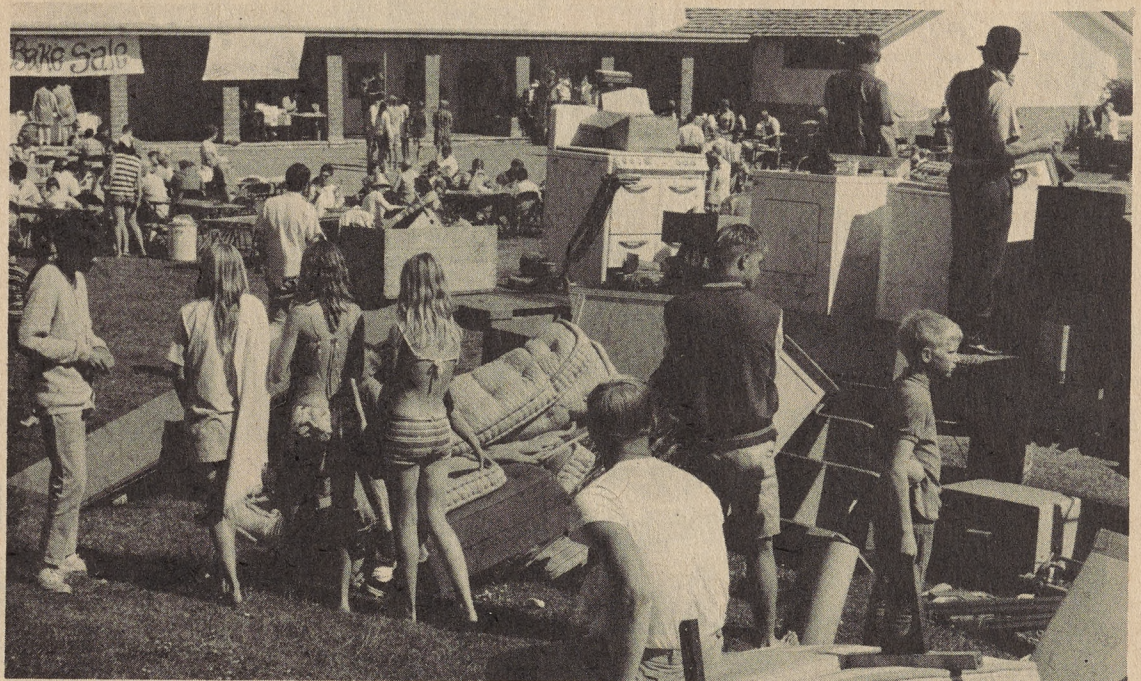

How does she do so many things so well? "Well, I suppose busy people figure they can slip in just one more little project."

Alliance Francaise honors go to 2 top Carmel High students

Two students from the Carmel High School French department took top honors last Friday at the award-giving ceremony of the Alliance Francaise. Scholarships were presented to Mary Faulkner of Carmel and Chris Capen of Carmel Valley, for a full summer session of French studies at the Monterey Institute of Foreign Studies.

Henri Monteagle, French cultural attache from San Francisco, presented the two seniors with the awards. The girls are students of Professor Henry Paroutaud at Carmel High School.

Mary is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Faulkner of Carmel and Chris is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Capen of Los Ranchitos.

Winners were chosen by competitive examination judged by Mesdames Marion Stevens, John Dowdakin, Professor Michel Joyet and Francois Vanderwal, and assisted by Mrs. Gaspard Weiss, chairman of the scholarship committee.

Carmel Women Club to hear music commentator

"Men, Music and Movies" is the program planned by Harold Gelman, music commentator and pianist, for the Carmel Woman's Club at its open meeting Monday, May 29, 2 p.m. in the clubhouse.

Mr. Gelman is currently music advisor for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Studios in Culver City, and has acted as supervisor on such motion picture classics as "Ben Hur" and "King of Kings" and more recently on "A Patch of Blue"; "Dr. Kildare" and "The Man from U.N.C.L.E." on television.

Mr. Gelman presents an informal but penetrating look at the techniques and problems, serious and amusing, of creating motion picture and TV scores; how the composer functions, how the stars become musical performers—from the point of view of the man who

Mr. Gelman's success as a commentator-pianist is based on a sound academic and musical education in his native city of Portland, Ore. MPC staff, advisers to show photos

A group show featuring the work of men who are either college staff members or members of MPC's photography advisory committee, will open Tuesday, May 30, with a reception in the library lecture hall on campus.

The public is cordially invited to "meet the photographers" from 7:30 to 10 p.m. Exhibitors Ansel Adams and Steve Crouch, advisory committee members; Al Weber, Jerry Lebeck and Henry Gilpin, photography instructors in MPC's evening program; and Stephen James, MPC coordinator of technical-vocation education, will all be there.

The show will be open through June 16, daily from 8 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. with the exception of Fridays, when the library closes at 4:30 p.m.

Arrangements for the exhibition were made by student C. Lewis Baltz, himself a photographer, and Edward Norris, MPC director of student activities.

STEPHEN A. JAMES of Carmel Valley whose work is shown above, will be one of the exhibitors in a photo show to open May 30 at Monterey Peninsula College.

'Hawaii' to open new Cinema 70

United Artists Film Distributing Corp. announced this week the awarding of their epic production, "Hawaii," to the Cinema 70, new theatre opening in Monterey July 13, for an exclusive reserved seat, roadshow engagement.

The transforming of the best-selling book into a motion picture was so enormous that it became a world-wide endeavor. It was filmed in four different parts of the world, while costumes and props came from such far-off places as Hong Kong, Denmark, Australia and the Philippines. And, as part of this global concept, a notable international cast was assembled to breathe life into Michener's characters.

Julie Andrews, Max Von Sydow and Richard Harris head

the large, distinguished cast.

Cinema 70, located in the new Del Monte Center in Monterey, will be the only theatre of its kind in Western California between San Jose and Los Angeles.

Innovations in equipment and structure include the very latest in 70 millimeter projection machines that deliver a picture of ultimate scope, depth and clarity, and a continental seating arrangement.

The seating provides for wide aisles between the rows of seats rather than center and side aisles as there are in conventional theatres. This allows for a space of 44 inches between the patron and the row in front of him, making for comfortable leg room. Capacity of Cinema 70 will be 800.

A chance to run as fast as you want... jump, climb, bounce, slide and feel like king of the hill. What more could a child want? This is the wonderful world that awaits youngsters at Dennis the Menace Park.

It has always been a special treat for Valley kids to go play at Dennis the Menace. Occasions like birthday parties are often celebrated there.

One day, we took Emily and Gordon White, Jay Jones and Alan Drew and photographed their reactions. They were oblivious to anything except playing... and were they hard to follow.

It seems that motion is the keynote of activity at the park. Everywhere you look, children are streaking past, laughing breathlessly.

Dennis the Menace Park was really born in Carmel Valley, even though it is located in Monterey.

Cartoonist Hank Ketcham, creator of "Dennis," used to live in Robles del Rio. He and sculptor Arch Garner, who later lived on Rancho Fiesta Road, collaborated in designing the park for the city of Monterey.

At that time, Garner's wife, Virginia, had a small nursery school in Pacific Grove, and these children became the guinea pigs and testing ground for all of the ideas.

This must have been the secret of success, because if the youngsters didn't react favorably, the idea was tossed out, no matter how attractive it might seem to an adult.

Grown-ups often look longingly at the equipment, as if they would like to try it out. When the park first opened ten years ago, there was an adult's night, when they could run and climb and pretend to be children again.

Recently reopened after a refurbishing, the park now boasts such exciting play facilities as a suspension bridge which invites a speedy dash across the swinging span, down the hill and through the tunnel (see cover picture) or into "the old mine."

Nothing really looks like anything conventional, however. The youngsters' imaginations turn them into whatever is right for the moment... and believe them... it's great fun!

"THE THING," a huge structural sculpture designed by Arch Garner, has been one of the most popular pieces of equipment since the park opened in 1957. There are things to do for all age groups... shoots to slide down, holes to crawl through, jumping off places, and inclines to run up and down. The metal mesh construction gives a feeling of really being up in the air. Emily White (center) takes a leisurely stroll up "The Thing," as she follows a pre-schooler on a test run.

BELOW—The many shapes, heights and textures provide such a variety of play areas, that youngsters seldom tire of playing. The only trouble with Dennis the Menace Park is persuading the kids that it's time to go home!

Minds and feet run rampant in a world made just for children

FEET ARE FOR running...and swinging bridges are for running on. There is scarcely a child who sets foot on the Dennis the Menace suspension bridge without tearing across to the other side.

EDITORIAL

The kelp yelped help

Pacific Grove's recent kelp-cutting day was a double success—huge quantities of nasty kelp were disposed of and a real old-fashioned community event was enjoyed by all.

With a Saragosis Sea of kelp building up off Carmel beach, a similar harvesting project there would be a useful service. Kay Scott, secretary of the Carmel Business Association, has the enthusiastic advice of Shirley Bass, manager of the Pacific Grove Chamber of Commerce, which coordinated its successful kelp day.

About 180 skin divers registered at Pacific Grove and about 20 more who didn't bother to register pitched in to help, too. They came from up and down the coast to participate.

Special attractions drew the divers. The city of Pacific Grove furnished filled air tanks. The Chamber provided saw blades for dispatching the big, thick kelp trunks. Merchants donated prizes which were given away via numbered golf balls socked out into the water.

It became a true community event when a variety of local people contributed the makings of a gala picnic lunch. "One nice 76-year-old lady turned up with a beautiful cake as her contribution," Shirley Bass related. "She said she baked a mean cake and she wanted to help." When it turned out to be a hot day, Elmarie Dyke, P.G.'s well-known grand dame, went up and down town, buying up all the cold pop available as her contribution.

Supervisor Willard Branson, who has been concerned about dangers to skin divers, gave a depth gauge as first prize for participants.

The project went on for a good part of the day, with community singing added to the festivities.

What happened to the cut kelp? Out to sea it went with the tide, although a little bit had to be towed to give it a start.

Mrs. Bass had sought the advice of the oceanography department of the Navy Postgraduate School and from Stanford's Hopkins Marine Station. She learned that marine life wouldn't be hurt if kelp is cut, although it will probably grow back in a year or so. Tom Maudlin, head of the Marine Rescue Patrol, also was on hand.

Sighting of some killer whales during the week probably scared away a few divers, but a watch was kept from surrounding boats and all was well.

All in all, a successful event, which Carmel could emulate to advantage.

PERSPECTIVE

IN SHORT

WHEN ALL OF the awards are being made at the end of this year's Little League season, certainly there should be a special one for devotion to duty given to Mrs. John Deas of Barbara Way.

Lt. Col. Deas phoned from Honolulu last week to ask his wife to join him in the Islands for the weekend. (The Valleyite enroute to Vietnam had a short briefing stop-over there.) With a willing grandmother, Mrs. Arthur Dresser, to care for the children, Mrs. Deas found herself almost miraculously in Waikiki with her husband.

She was having such a wonderful time viewing shows with Hilo Hattie and Don Ho, and visiting with her sister and husband who had just returned from an overseas assignment, that Jack suggested she remain for a week as the guest of an aunt and uncle.

Her reply? "I just can't because I have to work at the Little League booth!"

THE LOST parachute mentioned in Mildred Hattan's recent 'Oaks and Cacti' column is found. Not due to the power of the press but to Lt. Warren Jackson in his 'infernal flying machine' who flew over the Carmel River some 50 feet downstream from the Jackson's Lower Circle home and discovered the wayward chute snagged underwater in some bushes.

LITTLE JULIE FEND of Laurel Drive got on the wrong side of a pinata when she tried to crack it and release the candy load inside, during a Cinco de Mayo fiesta at the Valley's Plaza Linda Mexican Restaurant. During dinner "el Trio los Dominantes" from Fresno entertained while the children tried their luck at breaking a traditional pinata. More pinata treats are planned for weekend evenings in the restaurant patio this summer.

CINDY, the black labrador at Rippling River, almost made Mother's Day an event to remember. But she missed by a few hours and produced NINE little wiggling black pups on Monday instead. Mama is now busy training her offspring to assist her in her job of "official greeter" at RR. (She's terribly happy to get her girlish figure back again.)

ADD TO UNUSUAL mailboxes in Carmel Valley... (we understand the Post Office frowns on nonconforming mailboxes, but we enjoy them.) The striped tiger cat mail box suspended from a tree on Esquiline Road looks like a grinning Cheshire Cat from "Alice in Wonderland."

The only problem is the mailman won't put mail in it, according to owner Betty Lambert. Maybe he's afraid of getting clawed.

"BEST IN MATCH" and "Best in Breed" at the San Luis Obispo Kennel Club show recently was a two-year-old Shetland sheepdog trained by Carol G. Howell of Carmel Valley.

"Heather Crest Bright Adonis" is his name and he was bred in Sacramento by Lois C. Koch. He makes his home with Dr. and Mrs. (Carol) Keith Howell who run the Mid-Valley Veterinary Hospital.

SCHOOL NOTES

Carmel honor students

It is traditional at Carmel High for Honor Students to be excused from final examinations at the discretion of their teachers.

The following 20 seniors have qualified for this reward, and can relax while their peers suffer through the year-end ordeal June 12 through 15:

May Festival at Woods

The traditional May Festival was held at Carmel Woods School on Friday, for the seventeenth time.

The celebration was begun when Mrs. Marjorie McCausland was principal of the school, then just a tiny facility. The festival has been continued every spring since her death a number of years ago.

Each year the children perform for parents, grandparents, friends and town dignitaries.

Beginning with the "Hokey Pokey" by the kindergarten group, and ending with the lovely Maypole dance by the third and fourth grade girls, the youngsters danced both folk and original numbers.

This year's festival, held on the kindergarten lawn, was enlivened by the introduction of Woods School's first marching band, which led the children from the classrooms to the dance area.

Monterey Peninsula School District facilities. Eventually, a change of location from Seaside High School to Fremont Junior High School (also in Seaside) appeared to be a compromise settlement. However, they had put out thousands of flyers with a misleading address.

The sponsors had difficulty unearthing anyone who would defend going into the armed forces. No doubt a reluctance to lend dignity to conscientious objection played a part but the sponsors feel that this reluctance may be misplaced and may arise from misunderstanding.

One reason frequently given was that once one is committed to a military venture, it is no longer proper for those who defend it, particularly those in the armed forces or retired therefrom, to appear to tolerate a contrary view by appearing on the stage with an opponent. The sponsors question whether this type of reasoning is appropriate to our form of government.

The three pacifist organizations feel that they have a mission to perform among those objectors to this war who do not fit into traditional categories. It is their feeling that no good is served by mere coercion.

Persons who would like information on counseling may contact the Monterey Peninsula War Resisters League, 365 Spruce St., Pacific Grove, phone 375-7750.

Roger S. Lorenz — Hacienda Carmel
Monterey Peninsula Friends

TO THE EDITOR

Editor, The Outlook:

The problems of dissent in a time of undeclared war were illustrated last week when three traditionally pacifist organizations attempted to arrange a conference on the problems of conscientious objection to war.

The organizations involved were the Monterey Peninsula Friends Meeting (Quakers), the Monterey Peninsula branch of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom and the Monterey Peninsula branch of the War Resisters League. Believing that the problems of the objector to military service cannot be met by sweeping them under the rug, the pacifists contend that treating the matter in a frank and sympathetic atmosphere is the best way of dealing with it.

While no particular problem exists with respect to the traditionally religious objector, a rash of problems has erupted in connection with the Vietnam war which are almost entirely new for this country. Among these problems are objections by persons believing in a "just war" and serious moral objections by the unchurched.

When plans to hold a conference to consider questions of this nature became widely known, a number of difficulties arose. The sponsors were informed at one point that they probably would be denied the use of all

I'd washed and de-littered the car 'til it glittered,
But that doesn't end my transgressing.

To add to my goofing I'd torn off the roofing,
Denuding our house of protection.
With wide-open hoses I'd sprinkled the roses
And never turned off the connection.

Then I'm also supposed to bring in the clothes—
A labor of love I'd been trusted;
But being caught napping I'd left the clothes flapping
And straining until the lines busted.

I'm guilty, I mean it—the gods must have seen it
And pooled all their tears, broken-hearted.
Take heed, don't get eager with spring-cleaning fever
Until all wet weather's departed.

Churches to cooperate in summer vacation Bible school

With several churches co-operating, the Vacation Bible School to be held at the Carmel Valley Community Chapel under the direction of Mrs. Don Johnson is expected to be the largest so far conducted there.

All children of the community are welcome and may pick up their registration blanks at the General Store or at the CV Market. The school will be conducted mornings from 9:30 to 11:45, June 19 to 30. The theme will be "God's Hidden Wonders."

The Rev. Don Johnson will be happy to teach an adult evening Bible class during these two weeks from 7 to 9 if 10 or more people apply.

Plans are being made to hold worship service for the children, song fest, show films, conduct a contest, instruct in various crafts, and teach Bible classes.

Cookies and Kool-Aid provided by non-teaching mothers will be served by Mrs. Stella Miller.

A pre-school class for children over four who have not attended kindergarten will be taught by Mrs. Calvin Garner, assisted by Mrs. Jerry Katzman, Mrs. William Peters, and Miss Kelly Garner. Mrs. Victor Harber will have charge of the kindergarten. (All grades refer to those which the child completed this year.)

The teacher of the first grade will be Miss Lindy Doud, the second grade Mrs. James Miller, the third grade Mrs. Paul Naton, the fourth grade Mrs. Walter Mauzey, the fifth grade Mrs. Frank Bresk, the sixth grade Rev. James Brock, and the seventh and eighth grades Dr. and Mrs. James J. Short. The handcraft for this last group will be in charge of Mrs. Gordon Harlander.

Mrs. Raymond Danielson, whose telephone number is 659-2479, will be secretary and treasurer. Students may enroll with her if they have not registered at the General Store with Ken Van Hagen, or the CV Market with Mrs. Bennett.

All set for Festival of the Grape

COINS HAVE BEEN tossed into fountains for years, but at the Community Center Festival of the Grape, you can toss them in a psychedelic bathtub, proceeds going to the Community Center Pool. Elaine Bennett (right) and Dee Dee Skadan who will model in the fashion show, got in the swim and tried out the wildly decorated "wishing well." At the close of the wine tasting, the tub will be auctioned off (empty!). Perhaps it will become a status-symbol water trough for some "turned-on" Valley horse.

"The Festival of the Grape," traditional spring wine tasting given by the board of the Carmel Valley Community Center, will be Sunday, May 28, from 3 to 5 p.m.

Board members promise delicious cheese and bread from the Mediterranean Market to complement the wines, provided by the same fine winery that has helped host the festival for the past two years.

A summer-in-the-sun fashion show with teenage models as well as adults will feature casual, sport and riding clothes from Farm Center Western Shop and Joanne's.

Co-chairmen of the festival are Barbara Blevens and Ginnie Drew who have promised the traditional beautiful sunshiny wine-tasting weather that has graced the party in the past.

For those who are new to Carmel Valley, the Grape Festival is the gala affair which benefits the Community Center. It is an occasion to visit with all the other people in the Valley... and blossom out in summer clothes for the beginning of the season.

Tickets at $1.75 are available at the General Store, The Thunderbird Shop, Porter Marquard Realty and the Outlook office. Mary Wilsey, Barbara Blevens, Ginnie Drew, Ruth Angell, Doyt Early, Bob Hebert, Ken Van Hagen, Tom Verga, Ed Canfield, Dick McKenzie and George Clifford, members of the board, are selling tickets and they will also be available at the gate.

Pre-schoolers to get free vision tests

A series of free vision tests for children in the 3-5 year age category is being given on Thursdays, from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. at the Monterey Youth Center, at El Estero Park.

The Monterey Society of the Prevention of Blindness and the Monterey Lions Club are co-sponsors of the vision screenings which continue through June 15.

The tests are given to identify abnormalities which might lead to amblyopia or "lazy eye blindness."

THE FREE COLOR movie of Glen Canyon which was shown at the Alex Weyger home recently, is available for use of clubs, church groups, etc. from Jeannette Otter, 624-7280. Mrs. Otter also has a list of Sierra Club films and speakers available for programs. Applications should be made 2 or 3 months in advance.

CLUBS

● Gem and Mineral Society

The CV Gem and Mineral Society barbecue at the Trail and Saddle Club grounds Saturday, with 65 in attendance, was such a success that it will probably be an annual event.

A Rock Swap and White Elephant auction, with Bob Baird officiating as auctioneer, raised money for an electric typewriter for the club. Barbecue chefs were Emmett Spencer, Norwood Strange and Roland Farr.

● Fidelity

The Fidelity Club sponsored by the Carmel Valley Community Chapel will meet June 1 at 6 p.m. in Fellowship Hall.

Persons attending are asked to bring a hot dish, a dessert, or a salad, and their own table service for the potluck supper.

It will be a social evening with a "Mystery Program." Any further information may be obtained by phoning Mrs. Irving Ollason, 659-2440.

Many sign for natural gas

Claude Hicks, manager of the Carmel office of PG&E, told The Outlook that 119 persons had declared intention to sign up for natural gas service in the first week that the Carmel Valley office was open.

He urged Valleyites who are interested in the service to send in their forms as quickly as possible since as soon as the necessary quota of 395 subscribers is reached, work will begin on the pipeline.

Hank Blatnik mutilates hand in mower

Hank Blatnik of Hitchcock Canyon suffered the loss of three fingers and the thumb of his left hand on Monday, while using a rotary type lawn mower.

A stone had become lodged and damaged the housing of the riding type mower. While attempting to refit the housing, Blatnik's hand slipped into the rotating cutting mechanism.

Blatnik was rushed to Community Hospital by the Valley Red Cross Ambulance. An attempt to save the severed members was not successful.

Horse show changes date to Holiday

The First Award Series Horse Show, originally scheduled at the Trail and Saddle Club for Sunday, May 28, has been changed to Memorial Day (Tuesday).

Inspection will start at 9 a.m. with group instruction by Ralph Carter following at 10. Lunch break will come at noon after completion of the instruction.

The gymkhana and judged events will take place after lunch.

Entry fee for club members is $1 for all events and $5 for guest entries in all events.

Anyone riding in the gymkhana and judged events must participate in the inspection and instruction.

LISA WOLF

Lisa Wolf, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Wolf of 3 Lower Circle, died early Tuesday morning as a result of a respiratory difficulty.

Lisa was rushed to Community Hospital by Red Cross Ambulance, accompanied by Dr. David Morris and members of the First Aid Crew.

Mr. and Mrs. Wolf moved to the Valley last fall from Pacific Grove.

Wouldn't it be helpful if you could buy or sell property through one Realtor, and yet have the benefit of the services, or listings, of many others? The Carmel Board of Realtors thinks so too, and that is why, nine years ago, its Multiple Listing Service was established. Only Realtors are entitled to participate in the Listing Service. Sellers like to expose their property to the prospects of, and employ the efforts of all Realtors and their salesmen. Buyers enjoy the convenience of the "One Stop" look at the market, knowing that the properties they are shown are professionally inspected and listed.

★ Approximately two million six hundred thousand dollars of property was sold through the Multiple Listing Service last year.

The arrival of a new resident on Upper Circle helped to make Mother's Day a very special event for the Leonard L. Rhoades family. Evelyn's mother, Mrs. Lydia Laufer, made her first air flight from Connecticut to the Peninsula and already the retired R.N. is busily involved helping with the blood bank and has become a member of the Chapel Guild and Fidelity Club.

Mrs. Laufer has written many poems over the years. The following charming bit of 74-year-old philosophy was inspired during our "rainy season":

"The Rainbow"
Again it is raining,
But why be complaining?
The sun cannot always be shining.
With life's golden hours
There must be some showers
To cover the cloud's silver lining.
All nature rejoices,
Birds lift their glad voices
In praise to the Father above.
We behold once again
Through the sun and the rain
The sign of His greatness and love.

In colors most splendid
When showers are ended
His rainbow appears to our sight.
A promise from Heaven
To us mortals given
As proof of His glory and might.

Thank you for sharing your poem with us, Mrs. Laufer, and welcome to SUNNY Carmel Valley!

... And speaking of the recent rains, the feathered population at the Valley Hills Shopping Center sought refuge from the storm by building nests in all of the old fashioned lamps surrounding the parking lot behind the establishment formerly known as Leavell's.

Each of the quaint fixtures has had one or more panes of glass shot or stoned out and are now occupied by families of birds who remained high and dry throughout the entire down-pour!

A wedding anniversary and Mother's Day combined in the celebration Sunday at Will's Fargo attended by Mr. and Mrs. Claud Costa of Monterey, Mrs. Jayne Cartwright of Sage Road and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cartwright of Pacific Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Cartwright, who were married a year ago May 15th at All Saints' Episcopal Church in Carmel, were sharing the day with their mothers.

It was also a celebration of Jayne's recovery from a heart attack which occurred on the eve of Claudia and Dick's wedding.

At that time, Jayne became ill at the reception, and attempted to drive home. She was rushed back to town via the Red Cross ambulance where she remained for three weeks in the Community Hospital. She has the highest praise for the well-trained first aid crew made up of Volunteer Firemen.

24 HOUR SERVICE 375-2631
201 W. Franklin, Monterey

If we don't report the weather, then what's our weather bureau for?

Our weather bureau is for your comfort.

Most of your natural gas comes through pipelines reaching 1500 miles to Canada and Texas. And because the gas travels at 12 miles an hour, we have to know your daily requirements well in advance. A drop of just one degree in temperature means as much as 55 million more cubic feet of gas will be needed—and fast.

That's what our weather reports and forecasts are for. To make sure you and your family have all the natural gas you need—in any weather.

And if bad weather does show up, it also lets us alert our electric facilities, so power crews are standing by—ready to meet the emergencies inevitably caused by storms.

Our weather bureau forecast for you is always the same: continued comfort. Plenty of light, heat and hot water. Reliable service at all times.

You'll never hear one of our weather reports, but don't worry
—you won't miss a thing.

WHAT'S DOING?

If you plan any outdoor recreation this summer, here's a way to add to your fun and save money, too! Become a Golden Eagle family. This program, sponsored by the Federal Government, allows you and your family unlimited admittance to more than 2,500 Federal Recreation Areas. The annual fee of $7 is used to assure more recreation lands and waters. For more information on this worthwhile project write: Operation Golden Eagle, Bureau of Outdoor Recreation, Box 36062, 450 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California 94102.

Would you believe it actually happened? A policeman spotted a man carrying a pay phone under his arm. When asked if he was expecting a call, the man turned and ran. The officer gave chase, caught the man, and booked him on suspicion of burglary. Once behind bars, the culprit finally made his call—to his lawyer!

She's queen of the prom for Carmel High

Full-length color film at CV Center

5/27: "McHALE'S NAVY" (1965) COLOR. Their first full-length color feature! Some of the wildest and wackiest marine mis-adventures take place when the crew of a PT boat in the South Pacific turns its war efforts into the pursuit of laughs! This fast-and-frothy funfare runs the gamut of kidnapping a thoroughbred horse, an accidental capture of a Japanese submarine, and much more! And if that is not enough comedy for you... we will have TWO MORE SHORT COMEDIES with plenty of slapstick laughs.

Garden Club buys field kitchen for CV Fire Dept.

IT MAY NOT look like it... but that is a new field kitchen for the CV Volunteer Fire Department, that CV Garden Club President I.T. Johnson is presenting to Fire Chief Chip Collins. The recent garden tour, given to benefit the firemen, netted $510.79, which Chip says will be used to purchase a mobile kitchen unit for sandwiches and coffee during extended fires when the men are on duty for hours. The lovely background is the Elwood Smith garden in Los Ranchitos.

"It Takes All Kinds. . ."

GOLFERS

Right now our gal in the forest has seven homes priced from $49,500 to $75,000 which she thinks are real finds for real golfers. They have space for carts in the garage, are easy distance to the club, they overlook or are directly on fairways—from one you can watch the play of an entire hole on the shore course. Traditional adobe to ultra contemporary in the group, too. And if what you want isn't in the group, Fran Mauer is the greatest little truffle hound and she'll FIND it. Tell her what you want; tonight you may call her at 375-0717.

BUS RIDERS

Just step out your front door to the bus, yet be completely secluded from the street. We have a delightful garden (the fun-to-putter-in type) with nice 2 bedroom home attached for $29,500 . . . If you need 3 bedrooms, we have a wonderful floor plan built around a center patio and priced at just $29,750 . . . If you need only a small cottage for yourself, how about two of same on a duplex-zoned lot? Live in one and let the other make the payments for you. Price $26,500.

SWIMMERS

A fascinating pool collection right now: Live on the ocean itself, but swim in an enclosed, heated pool—a most unusual luxury combination. $147,500 . . . Or have a pool enclosed in a solarium with a beautiful 3 bedroom home wrapped around it. Especially great for tropical gardeners. $82,500 . . . For easy pool-side entertaining, a great Carmel Valley set-up with cabana and service kitchen at the pool and a guest house—all separated from the house completely. $82,500 . . . And possibly the most beautiful pool and setting in Carmel Valley, with really magnificent views, secluded on nearly 3 acres, adobe ranch home and guest house—a relaxed retreat at $110,000.

FAMILIES

Your riches are children, and you want convenience to schools, shopping, play areas and sun. We have 3 Carmel homes you should definitely see: 3 bedrooms, 2 1/2 baths in a story and a half home with an English flavor for $47,500 . . . 4 or 5 bedrooms, 2 1/2 baths, studio—long, low ranch style with completely enclosed yard for $47,500. Immediate occupancy . . . 4 or 5 bedrooms, 3 baths, near Carmel High at the end of a cul-de-sac, in mint condition for $52,500. Guy Stohr will be happy to give you the details tonight if you call 624-3542.

GARDENERS

Everyone who passes along Santa Lucia admires this rustic home with the beautiful flowers which are always blooming. But hidden from the view of passers-by are secluded patios with gardens of their own; and from the inside, what a pleasure to enjoy both a fascinating Pt. Lobos view and the garden as well. The price is $72,500. It's the first time on the market right here. Why not call Florence Harper now at 624-4517 and arrange a preview before the word gets out that this is available.

THE YOUNG IN HEART

You want something really different, but still you'd like to be right in Carmel? Drive down Dolores to the second house south of 13th Street, East side. White wall. Stunning oaks. Intrigued? The price is only $49,500 . . . But if you like the Valley, and you can afford the best of everything, arrange to see the finest contemporary we've ever offered—not "gimmicky" contemporary, just beautifully well done with two acres of green, irrigated pasture and white fences between you and the Valley road. 3.9 acres altogether, and priced at $149,500.

HIGHLANDERS

Three interesting and completely different possibilities at $35,000 or under right now. Also, two right on the water's edge in the $100,000 range, and a big house with a big separate studio only a few steps from a beach for $69,500. High up, looking down on exciting white water views and into verdant redwood canyons, the most beautifully done new home we've had in many a day for $80,000. Whatever the size of your pocketbook, we have something for YOU. Get started tonight by calling Tyl O'Connor at 624-7314 and tell her what price range fits your pocketbook.

TRADITIONALIST

That handsome 2 story Normandy house glimpsed over cypress hedges and stone walls, just off Scenic Drive on Carmel Point, will be for YOU. We seldom have such a charming home with such interesting large rooms and painstaking detail in the millwork and other decorating details. All your antiques will fit beautifully in this Hugh Comstock original. You'll be surprised and delighted to learn the price is well under the $100,000 you would have guessed!

BIRD WATCHERS

Don't ask to drive by this house because you can't see a thing from the street except an attractive, well kept white house. Inside, it's probably the best reverse 2 bedroom, 2 bath floor plan in town in order to orient its living areas and decks to the secluded canyon which forms a permanent green belt to the rear. Every bird in the area will find your feeders. You're only a few blocks from town, but the "feel" is a wilderness preserve. The price is a bargain at $33,500.

SUR COAST FANCIERS

Always something exciting to show you in property on the fabulous Sur Coast. Plan to make your inspection tour before the summer visitors come and grab up all the really good sites. Tell Hank Adams what you want and let him line up the interesting possibilities. You'll be glad you did.

2 Padre track stars in CC champion meet

Two Carmel High track stars will compete in the Central Coast championship meet Saturday at Pleasant Hill High in San Jose. Winners will go on to the state meet.

Kim Schaurer and Gary Kelley earned the privilege of competing in the championship meet by turning in outstanding performances in the Central Coast Section 3 meet last Saturday at Gonzales.

SPORTS

Middle School still undefeated

Still undefeated, Carmel Middle School downed Los Arboles 16-7 Saturday in Marina. Behind 6-0 through the first three innings, Carmel came back strong to take its 5th straight victory.

Heavy hitters for Carmel included Albert Hood, center field and Hans Smith, 1st base, with 4 each; Jimmy Conlan, S.S., and Tom Boyd, with 3 each.

Also praised by Coach Ralph Blumenthal as "playing outstanding ball" were Kevin Cunningham, 3rd; Ricky Hall, p.; Chris Foley and Brian Callihan, who alternated at r.f., and Craig Dickinson, l.f.

Games with Mission Saturday and Portola next week will wind up the season for the Middle School. In charge will be Bob Knych, Roland Schutt and Blumenthal.

Schaurer won the two-mile run, setting a new Section 3 meet record with 9:42.9. This compares to the old Carmel High record of 10:15 and the former League record of 10:026, which Schaurer broke last week with 9:59.

Kelley took second in the Section 3 meet with a discus throw of 153 feet.

Carmel varsity placed 10th in a field of 17 teams in the Section meet, which was won by Seaside, with Watsonville second and Santa Cruz and King City tying for third.

Padre golfers win

Carmel High golf team smeared Live Oak 11 1/2-31/2 last Wednesday in competition at Pebble Beach.

Carmel winners included Kevin Sullivan with 21 1/2 points, Gregg True 3, Darryl Dawson 3 and Bill Thompson 3. Joe Pistulka lost by 3 points.

A return match there is scheduled this week.

Sports banquet

Awards will be presented at the Carmel High spring sports banquet next Monday night in the school cafeteria.

Pres. Jim Kelsey of the sponsoring Boosters Club will preside. Awards will be made by coaches and Boosters Club officers.

Members of the track, baseball, tennis, golf and swimming teams and their parents are invited.

Red Sox, Tigers, Volunteers win

The Red Sox remain unbeaten at the midpoint in the first half of the Carmel Valley Little League season. Thursday they snatched a 5-4 thriller from the Volunteers in an exciting pitchers' duel to keep undisputed possession of first place.

Tom Ocampo's splendid five hitter was overshadowed by Mike Feeney's masterful effort in limiting the Volunteers to only two singles.

In the second inning, Mike Feeney helped his own cause by blasting a game-winning grand slam homer over the left field fence 200 feet from home plate—a first for the season and for the new park. As the ball sailed over the four-foot fence with plenty to spare, it settled the argument as to whether the feat was possible in the spacious gardens of Casey Park.

Saturday the Red Sox coasted to an easy victory over the Tigers. Totals: Red Sox, 13 hits, 20 runs, 2 errors; Tigers, 5 hits, 8 runs, 7 errors. The Volunteers had to settle for second place, two games out, by beating the Giants. Totals: Volunteers, 5 hits, 7 runs, 4 errors; Giants, 8 hits, 4 runs, 2 errors. In Tuesday's game, the Tigers took the Giants 6-1.

The Volunteers and Tigers meet Tuesday and the Giants and the Volunteers plan an all-out effort to head off the mighty Red Sox.

FARM TEAMS

In the Farm Teams' race, the Cubs and the White Sox, each with two wins and one loss, are tied for the lead. The Cubs easily beat the Indians 15-7 and the Pirates 13-8. The White Sox dropped a close decision to the Pirates 12-15, but walloped the Indians 16-4.

The Pirates are hosts to the Indians Monday, and the Cubs and the White Sox will battle it out for the lead Wednesday.

In Saturday morning's double-header, the White Sox play the Pirates and the Indians face the Cubs.

Carmel ball club wins, loses

Carmel High won a thriller-diller ball game with Pacific Grove 2-1 Saturday on the home diamond, in two extra innings.

And the Padre JVs clobbered P.G. 8-0.

Fanning 12, Carmel's Brian McEldowney was the winning hurler for the varsity; he walked nine and allowed five hits.

For the Carmel JV, Lee Mark struck out 11, walked one and gave up four hits.

S. Hall was the Carmel varsity's heavy hitter with three and Smith and Rodrigues with two each for the JV.

Carmel varsity lost 5-2 to Gilroy and the JV 14-13 in eight exciting innings Wednesday there.

Winning surfers

Tim Watts of Carmel took first place in the junior division surfing competition at Carmel Beach a week ago and Beau Kvenild of Carmel Valley took third place in the same division.

The men's division was also won by a local surfer. Philip Ranger of Carmel took first place in the senior category.

The surfing contest was sponsored by the Monterey Surfing Association
